

20,000 Leagues Under the Sea

Imagine traveling from the lost continent of Atlantis to the South Pole, battling giant squid, and exploring the bounty of the seas in a submarine commanded by genius/madman Captain Nemo. That's what happens to Professor Aronnax and his friends when they discover that the sea monster terrorizing ships is actually the man-made Nautilus, and they are captured by its creator, Nemo. This is one of the greatest adventure stories of all time by the author known as the Father of Science Fiction. Narrator Harlan Ellison is an award-winning author who has served as a creative/conceptual consultant on both The Twilight Zone and Babylon 5.
