Michael Hovhannisyán known by his pen name Nar-Dos, began his career as a writer in the 1880s starting with his poems, some of which were published in Araks (Saint-Petersburg) and Sokhak Hayastani collection. He also wrote stories, feuilletons and plays. Under the influence of Gabriel Sundukyan, Nar-Dos created the plays Mayini gangaty, Honey and flies in 1886 and Brother in 1887. Nar-Dos developed the psychological trend of Armenian critical realism displaying refined Armenian language.
