

Goldisocks and the Three Koalas: A One Act Play

Goldilocks is ready to retire from her fairytale career and has placed all her hopes that her daughter Goldisocks will take over her role. The problem is, Goldisocks has her own dreams to play professional soccer. Goldisocks is pressured to audition for the upcoming Goldilocks musical. She dreads confessing to her parents that she's been sneaking off to play soccer instead of going to her singing and dancing lessons. She decides to run away with a rest stop at the Three Koalas tree house where a twist of fate and a change of roles with Baby Koala makes dreams come true. Cast of six 3 females/3 males. One act. Approximately 20 minutes.
