Annalisa and Drew have always dreamed of going to Play Flamingo, Costa Rica, with their best friends, Vincent and Melinda. But now they're out of time. Annalisa feels their marriage is just a shell for others to see--there's nothing left inside. She wonders if they can rekindle their love in paradise, but there's so little left. They gave up on their marriage along with their dream of having children. Time is literally slipping away from Vince and Mel. Vincent's cancer is back--his tumor is inoperable and he won't do chemo again. This trip is now or never.
